

Google Meet

Video Meetings for Everyone, Everywhere

Join with one click

Just tap the meeting link from your calendar or email on any device and you're in.

No plug-ins required.

Share what you want

Share a window or your entire screen with a simple tap — no wires to connect.

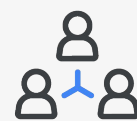

Follow along with live, closed captions.

Meet from anywhere

Join from a conference room, a laptop, or your mobile device.

Create dial-in numbers for up to 47 different countries.

Connect everyone

Connect with up to 250 meeting participants or 100K in-domain livestream viewers.

Record meetings to watch and share later.

Integrated with G Suite and third-party tools

Schedule & join meetings directly from Google Calendar

Share links & join meetings directly from Gmail & Chat

Screenshare & present content from Slides & Docs

Securely record meetings and save them to Google Drive

You can also add Google Meet video conferencing to Outlook meetings with our Microsoft Outlook add-in

An enterprise-grade solution, built on Google's secure global infrastructure

Google Meet leverages the power of Google to deliver security, quality, and reliability at scale.

- Consistent performance & reliability with 99.9% uptime SLA
- Optimal video & audio quality based on participant bandwidth
- Industry-leading security and privacy
- Easy to set up & optimize with comprehensive management tools

What's new?

Live captions Advanced speech recognition technology makes meetings more inclusive.

Larger meetings Meet can reliably support up to 250 participants and up to 100K livestream viewers.

Meet Hardware for rooms of every size

From desks to boardrooms, Meet Hardware gives you flexibility and choice.

Meet hardware partners:

logitech

acer

ASUS

BENQ