

The Interos Supply Chain Illumination "Self-Test Kit" is designed to support your procurement integrity. This capability protects critical infrastructures through continuous supply chain monitoring. It finds risk (financial, cyber, regulatory, ESG, environmental catastrophes) ahead of the disruption. It protects you and your client's mission.

Interos can help bolster your first line of defense and protect your government trust, value, and reputation; speeding up response times and compliance to executive orders & mandates like President Biden's new 30 actions to strengthen supply chains critical to America's economic and national security.

The Interos AI-powered supply chain intelligence platform maps, monitors, and models over 450M companies world-wide, graphing over 2 billion entity relationships across the globe so you and your team don't have to.

With Interos you have the confidence to:

- Identify your sub-tier suppliers to the "nth-tier".
- Continuously monitor the entire supply chain against priority risk factors and risk attributes including: Financial Foreign Influence, Cybersecurity, Compliance, Environmental Catastrophes & International sanctions
- Be "Source Aware" - avoid suppliers from restricted countries or industries.
- Improve response times through automated alerting and a scenario analysis "playbook".
- Provide content-based, pre-emptive decisions making, powered by supply chain insights you can trust.
