Exterro Legal Hold

The Recognized Gold Standard for Legal Hold Software

Exterro Legal Hold makes it easy to defensibly scope, create and manage all your legal holds.

Save time, improve efficiency, and increase the defensibility of your legal hold process by creating, distributing, managing, and tracking legal holds and custodian questionnaires with Exterro Legal Hold. With seamless integrations to modern corporate and government agency data ecosystems, Exterro Legal Hold empowers users to scope, draft, approve, and send legal holds in minutes.

“This is the tool that you need to use...When I took over the function of legal hold person, it was daunting to think of all the processes and things I would have to learn. It was hard for me to wrap my head around at the time. Having Exterro made it so much easier.”

— JUDITH DEVIEUX,
Manager of Legal Affairs,
American Express

FEATURES

An advanced technology platform orchestrates the tasks and processes required for legal hold scoping, management and release. With Exterro Legal Hold, enterprises benefit from the following:

Easy to Use

Our intuitive, streamlined interface makes it simple for users to access the powerful features embedded in Exterro Legal Hold.

Scalable and Adaptable

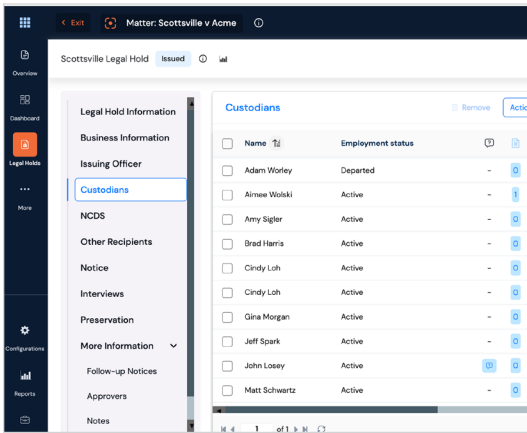

Designed to meet the needs of the world's largest organizations, Legal Hold can scale to defensibly scope, manage, and enforce holds of any magnitude.

Consolidated Distributions and Reminders

Help custodians understand the importance of pending obligations and eliminate “notice fatigue” by those on frequent, multiple legal holds, while simultaneously promoting consistent and defensible compliance.

Built-in Custodian Interviews

Start custodian interviews immediately upon issuing the hold and determine which custodians possess the most important ESI.

Precise Custodian Scoping

Leverage integration with your existing HR systems to identify current custodians or those who have worked for the organization in the past, regardless of position or department, and seamlessly place them on the hold.

Compliance Portal

Simplifies legal hold compliance by placing all of a custodian's holds in one easy-to-review screen.

Optional capabilities for Exterro Legal Hold

Cross-Border Compliance

Enables companies to fully comply with requests for production of ESI from employees located overseas.

In-Place Preservation

Helps companies protect and secure ESI from accidental deletion prior to collection.

Data Source Discovery

Connect directly with a wide range of data sources to identify sources and users, including how employees use shared repositories such as SharePoint Online and MS Teams.
