Vlocity, Inc.

SALESFORCE ISV

Vlocity is a leading provider of industry-specific Cloud and Mobile software built in partnership with Salesforce. Many government agencies and non-profits are looking to harness the power of modern, cloud technology to transform how they interact with their constituents. Significant investments in legacy applications pose the most common obstacle to digital transformation.

Designed to work with Salesforce, Vlocity Government is a digital platform that allows governments and non-profits to overcome legacy constraints and transform their organizations for the modern age. Some of the applications that are being transformed with Vlocity Government include:

- Health & Human Services Case Management
- Comprehensive Child Welfare Information Systems
- Foster Care Management
- Housing Program Administration
- Licensing & Permitting Administration
