

Augmedix Go

The Future of Pure-AI Medical Documentation

Augmedix Go is a cost-effective, AI-driven mobile app that uses ambient AI technology and structured data to instantaneously draft a medical note.

- Simple, intuitive interface
- HIPAA-compliant
- Low-cost and scalable
- Integration with leading EHRs
- Available in acute & ambulatory care settings
- Supporting over 50 specialties

“We serve a high-risk population, so being present for my patients while also documenting complex visits can be hard. Since I started using Augmedix Go, over 80% of the content discussed in my behavioral health visits is already in the note for me to review, which is saving me about an hour a day.”

Laurie Carrier, M.D. | Chief Medical Officer, double board certified in psychiatry and family medicine

How Augmedix Go Works

Step 1

See the Patient

Our technology uses automated speech recognition to capture and transcribe the natural clinician-patient conversation.

Step 2

Record the Visit

Augmedix Go leverages natural language processing, including proprietary tuned models based on Google Cloud's MedLM, among other large language models, and structured data sets, to create a high-quality draft medical note.

Step 3

Review and Sign

The Augmedix Go app makes it easy for the clinician to review and edit the content before finalizing each note.

Features You'll Love

Problem-based notes

Multiple recordings per visit

Multilingual capability

Augmedix Go saves clinicians up to 1 hour or more per day.

94% of clinicians surveyed reported that Augmedix Go helps them better focus on their patients.
