The graphic is a white rectangular box with a thin blue border. It contains three columns of text and images. The first column, titled "Connected Devices", shows a central white circular device surrounded by eight smaller icons representing various medical devices like a smartphone, a smartwatch, a glucometer, and a blood pressure cuff. The second column, titled "Software and EHR Integration", features a white tablet displaying a software interface with various charts and data points. The third column, titled "Care Management", shows a female healthcare professional in a white lab coat sitting at a desk and using a laptop. The Tenovi logo is in the top right corner, and the website URL "www.tenovi.com" is in the bottom right corner.
