

Informatica®

Informatica Executive Summary

Drive collaboration with the Informatica Intelligent Data Management Cloud for Higher Education. It is the only platform that manages data of any type, pattern, complexity or workload across any location.

Informatica helps universities:

- Improve access to education by fueling modern cloud analytics solutions with trusted and understandable data
- Deliver a more personalized experience for students, alumni, and faculty by providing an intelligent, 360-degree view of trusted data
- Drive compliance with regulations and enable the protection of sensitive student data

As the leader in Enterprise Cloud Data Management, we will provide you with the foresight to realize new growth opportunities. We invite you to explore all that Informatica has to offer—and unleash the power of data to drive your next intelligent disruption.
