Eliminate Global Supply Chain Shortages and Shipping Delays with Forcepoint.

Network Security Suppliers are impacted by shortages in chipsets, hardware, and long leadtimes to ship and deploy equipment. As the cybersecurity landscape grows more complex, you can help organizations overcome bandwidth and security issues, because Forcepoint has you covered.

 17%

Increase in Chip Demand
From 2019 to 2021 in microchip demand - without commensurate increases in supply. Shortages are expected to continue through 2022.

80%

Of Manufacturers
Are challenged at finding qualified workers to fulfill Semiconductor manufacturing positions. Source – IPC.org. Staffing shortages will continue to impact supply.

| Challenge | Forcepoint has you covered |
|---|--|
| Up to 6 months delays in shipping NGFW hardware | Deploy now: Hardware in stock, most ship within 48 hours. |
| Cloud focused deployment delays because of gaps in network security | Forcepoint can deploy as a software only solution – requiring no hardware. |
| Adoption of new vendor presents challenges | No Risk: Adopt a 12 month subscription with Forcepoint and stop gap the bandwidth and security challenges. |
| New technology may require additional training | Robust training platform available virtually or in person. |
| Increasing costs for network security in market | Forcepoint delivers low Total Cost of Ownership, and high value for your organization. |

AAA Rated by Cyberratings for NGFW / SD-WAN Solutions – Here’s a few reasons to consider Forcepoint:

- Easy Mangement: SMC provides one pane of glass experience of managing your environment, leading to faster rollouts
- Unmatched Security Effectiveness (Exploits, Evasions, Stability, and Reliability)
- Greater Value (Total Cost of Ownership (TCO) / MBPS)
- Apply Zero-Trust to network security with granular user, access, and policy controls
