Everlaw for Criminal Prosecution

Manage the demands of discovery, investigations, depositions, and trial preparation in one unified platform.

Everlaw is an all-in-one ediscovery and investigations platform, relied on by federal, state, and local agencies to gain valuable insights from data in the pursuit of justice. Transparent and predictable pricing meets intuitive design to create a user experience that increases productivity, bolsters collaboration across offices, and boosts confidence. Everlaw provides a solution to the ever-changing policy, legal, and technology landscapes. Connected, collaborative, and cloud-native, Everlaw helps prosecutors chart a straighter path to the truth–and transform their offices in the process.

INVESTIGATE FASTER

With industry-leading upload-to-review times, processing speeds of up to 900k docs/hour, lightning-quick searches, and auto-deduplication, district attorney offices can reduce review costs by up to 50% or more.

UNCOVER THE FULL PICTURE

Detect meaningful patterns to uncover critical information in your data. Supercharge your review by leveraging Everlaw Clustering, search term reports, and automatic audio/video transcription to glean valuable insights from your data. Avoid evidence suppression and penalties by ensuring productions are inclusive of all evidence, including materially exculpatory evidence in accordance with the Brady rule.

MANAGE EVIDENCE AND WITNESS TESTIMONY IN STORYBUILDER

Collaborate on motion briefs and reference documents in Drafts using Storybuilder, Everlaw's case-building and trial preparation tool. See witness testimony, key events, defendants, and other pieces of evidence in chronological order to understand context and build the best case. Assign tasks to your team so every step is accounted for.

PROTECT PRIVACY AND PRIVILEGE WITH ADVANCED REDACTIONS

Automate redactions for confidential information like PII or PHI, and apply redactions in bulk to phrases or words with one click. Redact a variety of file types including images, audio, video, and spreadsheets.

"Products like Everlaw are helping make sure that we're continuing to pursue due process even during this tough time. Having searchable databases that can help you marshall evidence quickly and efficiently is an indispensable element of justice and I'm grateful for that."

Keith Ellison
Attorney General, State of Minnesota
