The Identity Playsheet: Winning The Federal Security Game and Becoming The MVP

Your essential guide to establishing a robust identity strategy in government agencies. This playbook outlines key plays that transform your identity management from basic defense to championship-level security, enabling your agency to achieve MVP status in the federal security arena.

PLAY #1: QUICK SLANT

Play Call: Grizzle - left tight F-fly pass 37 punch - waggle - help baby dizzy x fan on the turbo"

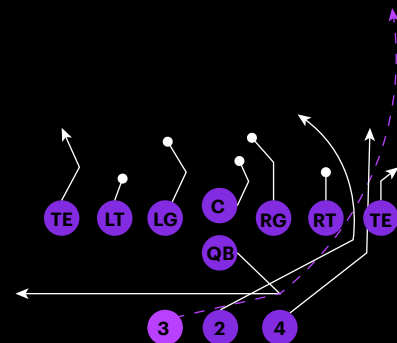

Deploy solutions that tackle critical identity problems immediately while building toward comprehensive coverage. With limited resources, focus on addressing pressing challenges within initial budget constraints to establish momentum and early wins.

PLAY #2: T-FORMATION DEFENSE

Build identity as your T-shaped security foundation. The vertical represents core components (SSO, MFA, digital front door) while the horizontal covers all necessary integrations. Assess your current position before determining the full investment needed for your modernization approach.

PLAY #3: ACE RT

Play Call: Zilch left - 35 Witchita - Matcho Toe on one ready

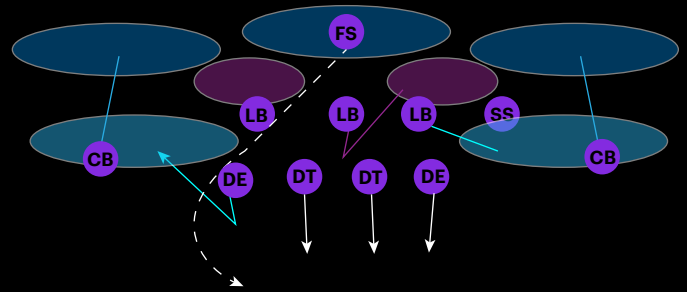

Measure program success through a triple perspective: CIO (IT efficiency), CISO (zero-trust compliance), and CFO (financial management). Align your KPIs with these stakeholders' metrics to justify continued investment and demonstrate comprehensive value.

PLAY #4: INSIDE BLITZ COUNTER

Play Call: Tre right - closer karate can - 12 duo alert booty on one

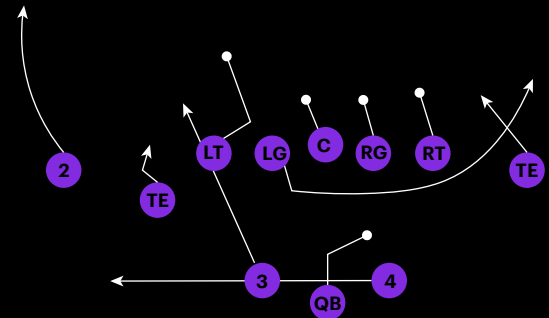

Neutralize internal threats by establishing clear separation of duties and continuous access monitoring. Track privilege changes during workforce transitions (RIFs, role changes) to prevent security gaps and unauthorized access from developing within your perimeter.

PLAY #5: SPLIT GUN FORMATION

Play Call: Dice right - F fly - whiskey brady

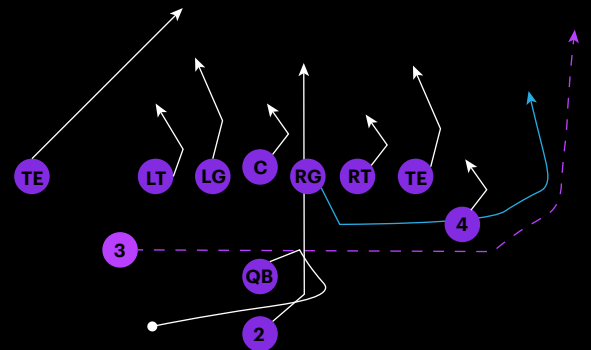

Transform security and data-sharing from opponents to teammates. Implement secure access methods for non-traditional users through automated request systems. This eliminates manual processes while maintaining security, enabling effective collaboration between agency partners.

PLAY #6: JET SWEEP

Play Call: Dice Right - numbers 3 - jet spielberg on one ready

Demonstrate ROI by tracking retired duplicate systems and associated cost savings. Measure reduced cycle times for network access and application provisioning. Quantify efficiency gains in dollars to show tangible returns on your identity investment.

PLAY #7: COVER THREE SCHEME

Play Call: QK - 52 - 53 [Fox] Fire - Lava

Tackle complex onboarding challenges through integrated identity workflows. Address unique federal requirements for contractors, partners, and special government employees. Ensure day-one access while maintaining security across classification levels and organizational boundaries.
