Transform Public Sector Recruitment

Accelerate hiring & deliver high-satisfaction candidate experiences

Talent Recruitment Management accelerates hiring for government agencies by providing real-time application and candidate tracking, live updates, and automated notifications. It centralizes recruiting efforts, making processes accessible across departments. The solution helps increase candidate retention with a transparent applicant portal and helps to ensure secure management of candidate data and PII, maintaining compliance and privacy.

Here's how it works.

See what's included in this solution:

1 Engage

Recruit Top Talent With Transparency

Attract and hold the interest of top talent with an applicant portal that dynamically tracks the candidate's application progress and automatically provides updates on any device.

Talent Recruitment Management for Public Sector Solutions streamlines hiring with automated workflows, real-time tracking, and secure, centralized information.
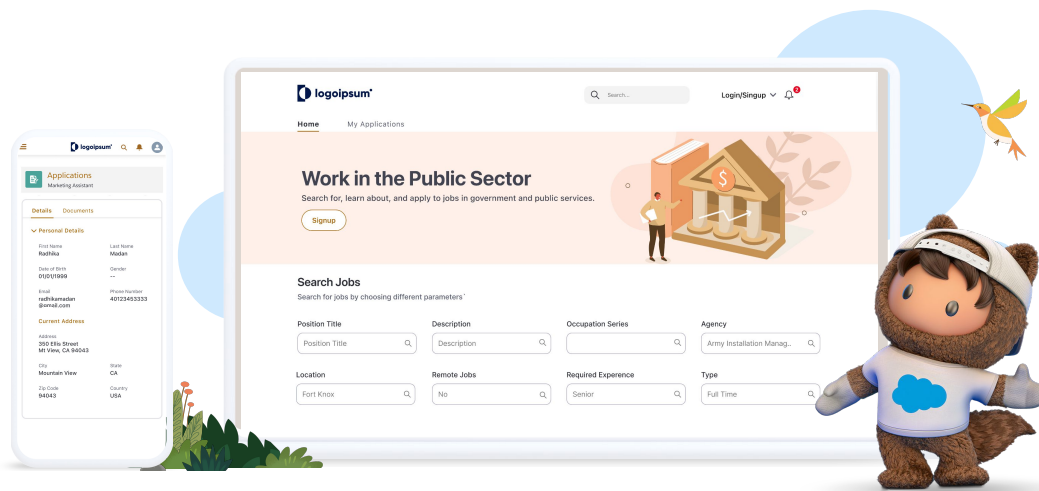

2 Evaluate

Assess Candidates Faster

Speed up the selection process to screen your top-choice public sector candidates with easy-to-create, collaborative evaluation and assessment plans.

Marketing Cloud helps government agencies deliver positive candidate experiences at scale with personalized engagement.

3 Select

Coordinate Across Departments

Centralize recruitment efforts and identify top public sector hires with organized communication channels that are easy to create, join, and search.

Slack is a secure space to connect your team, tools and data with the teammates and partners you work with every day.

4 Protect

Securely Manage Candidate Data

Manage compliance, privacy, ethics, and sensitive candidate PII with secure document uploads and controlled access to candidate data.

MuleSoft makes it easy to integrate data from any system, anywhere to create connected experiences, 3x faster.

5 Hire

Extend Offers With a Click

Seal the deal and complete the hiring process by creating personalized offer letters for your dream candidates that you can send with ease.
