

Salesforce National Contract for the Federal Reserve System and Board of Governors

Carahsoft Technology Corp. is an IT solutions provider delivering best-of-breed software solutions since 2004. Carahsoft is able to provide customers like the Federal Reserve System with easy access to Salesforce's entire portfolio of products and services. Salesforce provides a single enterprise platform that delivers multiple services and enables your organization to rapidly configure solutions specifically tailored to your mission and requirements. The Salesforce Platform is the lowest risk and fastest way to securely build, connect, optimize, and deploy every kind of app tailored for any type of use case.

Participating Addendum (PA)

To use the Salesforce National SaaS Agreement for the Federal Reserve System, interested Banks need to complete a Participating Addendum (PA). The PA calls out specific portions of the National SaaS Agreement contract Banks should review before completing the agreement. After completing the PA, participating Banks may then purchase any generally available Salesforce product at their leisure. Interested Banks can engage in scoping and pricing exercises at any point, by contacting a Carahsoft Representative, but must complete the PA before finalizing any initial purchases of Salesforce Products..

Software as a Service Agreement Terms

The Richmond National Procurement Office and Carahsoft created the Salesforce National Contract for the Federal Reserve System, which is made available to all Federal Reserve Districts and Board of Governors. Established February 14th, 2020, this 3-year national contract provides a user-friendly process for Participating Banks to purchase Salesforce products and services. Interested Banks can join onto the contract at any time by completing a Participating Agreement . Once on-board, Participating Banks can purchase any generally-available Salesforce product at any point during the contract term, which will automatically co-term with the contract's end date for ease of use.

The Period of Performance for this contract is 2/14/20 to 2/13/21 with 2 Option Years.
