FOR GOVERNMENT

Thentia Cloud

Cloud-based licensing and permitting software designed exclusively for regulators, by regulators.

thentia.com

An industry-leading govtech platform that's transforming how regulators work.

At Thentia, we're transforming and modernizing the way regulatory bodies manage their licensees and processes. Our end-to-end platform, Thentia Cloud, brings together best-in-class technology with expertise and leadership that regulators can trust.

Thentia Cloud is an all-in-one digital platform for regulatory bodies that want to save time and money on administrative functions and regulatory processes while providing a better experience for constituents.

A single, configurable solution that automates and streamlines the entire licensing and regulatory process.

Registration

Streamline, digitize, and automate your agency's license registration and renewal processes.

Education Management

Enable licensees, students, or schools to easily track, record and submit experience hours for ongoing certifications.

Public Portal

Provide the public with easy access to essential licensee/business data through a web-based portal.

Complaints & Investigations

Centralize, track, and oversee all components of the case management process.

Board Management

Modernize how you interact and share files with your board and committee members.

Communications Management

Automate and simplify how your agency communicates with licensees and stakeholders.

Payments & Invoices

Eliminate manual check payments and enable your licensees to quickly pay fees online, tracking all important payment transaction details within one environment.

Reports & Insights

Quickly and easily analyze several types of data queries directly in the platform using familiar charts and graphics.

Inspections

Assign, schedule, track and report on inspection through a single system.

Permitting

Easily manage the entire permitting process, from application to approvals within a single system.

Integrations

A collection of out-of-the-box connectors to the tools you need to eliminate manual data entry and service licensees faster.

System Management

A single place to quickly manage your configurations, workflows, and user management settings.

We live and breathe government technology.

We've proudly architected an industry-leading, end-to-end solution that's designed to deliver a measurable impact to your regulatory organization. Thentia Cloud continues to deliver value at every step, giving you the agility needed to help your agency achieve regulatory success now and long into the future.

Regulatory Expertise

At Thentia, we are more than technology experts—we are former regulators who understand the industry and the challenges regulators face, inside and out.

Low-Code Software

Our turnkey platform uses a low-code software development approach and easy-to-use drag-and-drop tools to enable quick application deliveries and seamless deployments.

Lower Cost to Serve

With our digitized, programmatic platform, we cut out administrative and other overhead costs, enabling you to service your users at a lower fee.

Serious About Your Success

Our entire team is invested in your agency's success. Period. Our customer success team follows a model where we proactively engage our clients at every step in their journey, even beyond implementation, so that no stone is left unturned.

Unbeatable Pricing

We don't charge astronomical deployment fees. Our pricing is competitive and, more importantly, calculable and predictable.

Client-Driven Product Innovation

With a significant share of the professional regulator market in North America using our solution, we continue to learn, adapt, and expand the scope of our capabilities to meet the niche, ever-changing needs and requirements of our industry.

Flexible & Configurable

We appreciate that no two regulators are the same. Our software is completely malleable to ensure it meets your agency's unique requirements.

Rapid Deployments

We're known for implementations that are quick and seamless with no interruptions to your daily operations.

State-of-the-Art Security

We take extraordinary measures to ensure your data is protected by only using ISO 27001, SOC2 Type 2, and FedRAMP certified partners.

Thentia is incredible. I honestly feel like it is our fourth employee. It's that employee who is working at night and on the weekends and on holidays. It benefits licensees too because employees are not bound to the office. An appraiser can get their license issued at midnight. It is a fail safe for us in a lot of ways.
