RePath is a mobile supervision application placed on a defendant's phone.

What does it do?

It helps judges:

- Reduce/automate time intensive administrative functions
- Ability to file reports with court prior to the court date
- Provides structure to create opportunities and better outcomes
- Accountability - ensuring participants are complying with terms

It helps participants:

- Provides court reminders and directions
- Access to assistive services
- Receive attention and help when most needed
- Assist with compliance

Testimonials

“It is a very good option for those individuals who cannot afford $300/month for GPS ankle monitoring. eHawk is very responsive and has been very helpful through this entire process.”

- Judge Jessica Agnelly, Jackson County

“We use it with all our treatment court clients in phase 1, which makes a difference in their compliance early in the program. It helps provide structure for those who have very little in their lives.”

- Judge Andrea Vandeloecht, Missouri 9th Circuit
