Summary

This ordering guide has been developed in accordance with the specifications and guidelines as set forth in US Army, CHES Contract W91QUZ-09-A-003. This guide is to accompany the aforementioned contract.

This BPA has been developed in accordance with the spirit of the Federal Acquisition Streamlining Act. The Department of Defense (DoD) and Carahsoft Technology Corp. have entered into an agreement to further reduce the administrative costs of acquiring commercial items from the General Service Administration (GSA) Federal Supply Schedule (FSS) Contract GS-35F-0119Y. Products from VMware and EMC are available via this BPA. As outlined with this ordering guide, each of these manufacturers has individual terms and conditions governing the products acquired via this contract. Warranty and support services terms and conditions, and software license terms applicable to EMC Corporation (EMC) products acquired under this BPA are set forth in this Ordering Guide. VMware warranty, maintenance, and software license terms set forth in this BPA do not apply to EMC products.

Program Terms and Conditions

DFARS Section 208.74 directs DoD buyers and requiring officials to check the DoD ESI website for DoD inventory or an ESA before using another method of acquisition. These steps for the buyer are summarized from the DFARS:

1. Check the Enterprise Agreement Summary Table to determine if software rights or maintenance have already been purchased and are available from DoD inventory. If they are available, purchase the designated software from DoD inventory and reimburse the SPM.
2. If the required software rights or maintenance are not available from inventory or from an ESA, you may use an alternate method of acquisition, subject to laws and policy.
3. If the required software rights or maintenance are not available from inventory but are available from an ESA, you must follow the procedure in the DFARS Section 208.74.
4. If you must obtain the software or software maintenance outside the DoD ESA, you may seek a waiver from a management official designated by your DoD Component.

DoD Agencies: Follow the procedures in DFARS 208.405-70(b) and (c). Requests for Quotation (RFQs) may be posted to GSA's electronic RFQ system, e-Buy, which allows ordering activities to post requirements and obtain quotes electronically. Ordering activities may access e-Buy at <http://www.ebuy.gsa.gov>. While the use of performance specifications is preferred to encourage offerors to propose innovative solutions, the use of brand name or equal purchase descriptions may be advantageous under certain circumstances. Brand name or equal purchase descriptions must include, in addition to the brand name, a general description of those salient physical, functional, or performance characteristics of the brand name item that an "equal" item must meet to be acceptable for award. In competitive RFQs, include a description of the basis upon which the contracting officer will make the selection.

Government Prime Contractors: Follow the terms of this BPA, the GSA schedule, and your contract and the direction of its Government contracting officer in accordance with FAR Part 51 for ordering from Federal Supply Schedules.

Professional services (SIN 132-51): This BPA may be used for acquiring IT Professional services when defined as individual tasks. Professional Services (SIN 132-51) are only available from VMware Corporation or Carahsoft Technology Corp. under this BPA.

Contractor team arrangements per FAR 9.6 may be utilized under this BPA.

Open Market (non-contract) items may be added to a FSS BPA individual order, provided that the items are clearly labeled as such on the order, all applicable regulations have been followed, and price reasonableness has been determined by the ordering activity for the open market items.

VMware Product, Warranty, and Support Information

VMware Support/Subscription is mandatory with all new license purchases at the standard GSA Contract rates and is subject to the terms and conditions of the then current VMware Support and Subscription Services and is offered under GSA FSS Contract SIN 132-34. VMware Support and Subscription terms and conditions are available at the following link: http://www.vmware.com/files/pdf/support/support_terms_conditions.pdf

EMC Product, Warranty, and Support Information

The EMC "Product Notice" is the notice by which EMC informs Customer of product-specific use rights and restrictions, warranty periods, warranty upgrades and maintenance (support) terms. Product Notices may be delivered in an EMC quote, otherwise in writing and/or a posting on the applicable EMC website, currently located at http://www.emc.com/products/warranty_maintenance/index.jsp. The terms of the Product Notice in effect as of the date of the EMC quote shall be deemed to be incorporated into and made a part of the relevant Customer purchase order. Each Product Notice is dated and is archived when it is superseded by a newer version. EMC shall not change any Product

Notice retroactively with regard to any Products listed on an EMC quote issued prior to the date of the applicable Product Notice. Upon request, EMC shall without undue delay provide a copy of the applicable Product Notice and/or attach it to the relevant EMC quote.

The terms of EMC's Product warranty and available support services, which EMC will provide to Customer as a subcontractor to the authorized reseller under the Blanket Purchase Agreement are available at the following link:
