DATASHEET

Fortra Cybersecurity

Fortra delivers comprehensive visibility and control over your data, eliminating blind spots and reducing risk. Our unified AI cybersecurity platform replaces fragmented tools with an integrated architecture that safeguards your data's every move so your organization can work with confidence.

SEE YOUR DATA

Know your data so you can better protect it. Fortra enables complete visibility into your data: what it is, its sensitivity level, and where it lives. Discover and accurately classify all your data with AI-driven workflows. Integrated enterprise labeling leverages hundreds of built-in data types, with room to customize for your organization's unique needs.

Our Solutions: DSPM, Data Classification

SECURE YOUR DATA

Data security should enable innovation – not slow it down. Enforce unified policies across your entire data environment, including endpoints, SaaS, cloud, email, and networks. Strengthen your posture further with enterprise-grade email security, online brand protection, and secure data exchange that streamlines the compliant movement of sensitive data.

Our Solutions: Brand Protection, DLP, Email Security, and Secure Data Exchange

FIND YOUR RISKS

Quickly identify vulnerabilities, validate defenses, and reduce your organization's risk. Fortra eliminates blind spots by enabling security teams to find risks across their entire environment through penetration testing, red-team simulations, and vulnerability management. Intelligent sampling and deep-scanning capabilities strengthen discovery across every environment.

Our Solutions: Pen Testing, Red Teaming, and Vulnerability Management
